

GLEN GABLES SCHOOL, Mill Straight

In the 1930s this school, which fronted onto Mill Straight between Andrews Road and Shipley Road, catered for the needs of young foster children. It later became the home of Mrs Piedot, who was much involved with village activities. The house was demolished to make way for The Gables bungalow development at Shipley Corner.