

LAWSONS FARM, Two Mile Ash

This house probably dates back to the mid or late 16th century. In 1809 the land formed part of an exchange of properties between Sir Henry Fletcher and Robert Henry Hurst.

In 1840 it was still owned by Robert Henry Hurst, and occupied by James Green.

In 1881 it was occupied by Edward Gratwick, agricultural labourer, and in 1912 by Henry Parker. The farm is now part of the Fletcher Estate.

Drawing by Judith Court