

OAKLEIGH HOUSE, Cripplegate Corner.

The first mention of Oakleigh House appears in the 1891 census when it was occupied by William Watson, a retired farmer, and his family. The house can be seen on the far right in the aerial photo of Tester's Garage (See TESTER'S GARAGE). When the house was demolished, the site retained the name as Oakleigh Court.