

T URNERS CLOSE

This development was named after John George Turner, the miller of Cripplegate Mill between 1899 and 1914, who once owned the land on which the houses were built.