

WELLERS FARM, Southwater Street

The house was originally a barn in the 16th century before being converted into a farmhouse.
Horsham District Council Listings

In 1844 it was owned by Matthew Stanford and occupied by John Penfold. In 1853 William Greenfield lived there. In the dispersal sale of the Denne Estate in 1929 it was sold for £ 400 to Mr Russell.

Photo thanks to Bern Laker