

NYES FARM, Southwater Street

Nyes is a 16th century timber-framed building. In 1785 it was owned and occupied by Harry Griffith. In 1785 it was owned and occupied by Harry Griffith. In 1840 it was owned by Gainor Brown and occupied by Henry Ings. In 1881 it was occupied as three cottages by agricultural labourers Ephraim Burrage, Edmund Evans and Nicholas Burtenshaw. It is now one substantial house.

1962 Sale document

