

RED HOUSE, Worthing Road

There used to be two pairs of cottages next to Elm Cottages. The ones shown on the left in this picture were called No's 1 and 2 Red House; the others, set back from the road, were called No's 1 and 2 Stone Cottages. Both pairs of cottages were demolished in the 1970s to make way for Pipers Close. The entrance sign to Piper's Timber Yard can just be seen behind the trees on the right.
