

ROSE COTTAGE, Worthing Road

William Hammond established his saddlery and harness business in the Cock Inn stables (on the north side of Church Lane) in 1818. His son, William, took over the business and occupied Rose Cottage, next to the stables, using the side lean-to as a saddler's shop.

Bill and photo thanks to Bob Piper

William and Sarah Hammond outside Rose
Cottage

